ARTISTIC PROJECT

Sāmara is also the name of the daughter of a significant person in Lila's life. The choice to give the first names of existing or mythological women (as with her solo Azad), whose meanings and characteristics define the work itself, comes from her desire to write history, and to extend the lives of these people by letting their names resonate.

This piece sees five individuals sharing common and deferred emotions, coming together to express these emotions through the body, sometimes individually, sometimes as a group, in order to capture the power this exudes. Sāmara also addresses how these people manage to find a common language despite their distinct individual journeys.

BIOGRAPHIES DE L'ÉQUIPE

Lila Magnin aka Lila Magnifique, is a hybrid artist, expressing herself through video and networks as much as on stage. Her art floats between institutions and independent projects, between movement and voice, between sound and visuals, between the profound and the profoundly aesthetic. His work is a constant and conscious search for freedom and the true self. It relentlessly explores the principle of complementary dualities.

Lila Magnin began dancing Bharata Natyam (traditional/classical Indian dance) at the age of 3, and at 18 joined the Juste Debout School in Paris.

Back in Belgium in 2013, she worked on various projects and released her first two self-produced songs/clips. It was at this point that she also began coaching a team of young dancers in Brussels, for whom she choreographed, danced and took part in various competitions.

She also continued to train around the world, and in 2015 she went to live in Australia for a year, where she earned her living doing street shows.

Since 2013, Lila Magnin has worked with various international artists, such as Vraja Sundari Keilman (Samadhi Dance Company, NL), Pitcho Womba Konga (KVS, BE), Andrew Ondrejczak (USA), Leslie Mannès (BE), Hussein Ali (IRAQ), Thi Mai Nguyen (BE). As a collaborator/choreographic coach, she is currently working with Ilyas Mettioui (BE).

In 2019 she will create her first piece the #roof is on fire, a male quartet produced by Mars - Mons Arts de la Scène and supported by the Service Danse of the Fédération Wallonie-Bruxelles.

In April 2022, she presented her first solo, Azad, co-produced by the KVS and Mars - Mons Arts de la Scène, for which she also composed and produced the music.

During the 2023-2024 season, Lila Magnin is an associate artist of BAMP, Azad is touring the Fédération Wallonie-Bruxelles and Flanders, Sāmara is being created, and the new musical form is being researched and produced.
